The Italian Foreign Office can recommend the best Italian pianists to the Italian Embassies and to the Italian Institutes of Culture.

24) The outright first prize winners must play in the winners' concert, which will take place at the Auditorium of the Institute "Massimo" on 24th October 2011, performing without musical scores - from memory, a programme chosen by the Jury among the compositions presented and performed in the various stages of the Competition.

25) Prize winners will forfeit the right to receive the prizes if they fail to take part in the winners' concert, or even if they take part in the winners' concert but do not perform from memory (if it is foreseen by the regulations), or if they perform compositions even partly different from those chosen by the Jury.

26) The President of the Associazione "Fryderyk Chopin" can decide to allow other competitors, among the best classified to play in the winners' concert, inviting them to perform a programme selected among the compositions performed in the various stages of the Competition, chosen by the Jury and the Artistic Director of the Competition.

27) The Jury's decisions are unquestionable and final. No appeals will be considered.

28) The President of the Associazione "Fryderyk Chopin" is entitled to assist the Jury's proceedings but is not entitled to vote.

29) The diplomas will be awarded to the outright first prize winners and special prize winners at the prize winners' concert. Other diplomas will be awarded at the winner's declaration, immediately after the final votes. Should this not be possible for justified reasons, by personal request they may be forwarded, with payment of the due expedition costs.

30) Competitors cannot claim economic rights for any Competition performance, or for the prize winners' concert. Rights in all Competition performances, recordings or films, belong to the Associazione "Fryderyk Chopin" and no fee is payable to any competitor for performances, recordings or television broadcasts of them.

31) The Associazione "Fryderyk Chopin" reserves the right to modify or change the present Regulations.

32) The President of the Associazione "Fryderyk Chopin" has the faculty to make a decision on all aspects not covered by the present regulations and is also competent to decide on any issue regarding the interpretation of the Regulations.

33) Competition participants must implicitly and unconditionally accept the rules of the Associazione “Fryderyk Chopin”’s Statute and of all regulations and must observe them, failure to adhere to regulations will cause their exclusion from the Competition. Copy of the Statute is available at the seat of the Association.

34) In case of any controversy, the Court of Rome will be the competent body to decide.
